

asymmetric capabilities of Taiwan and options for the United States to enhance such capabilities.

(2) ELEMENTS.—The report required under paragraph (1) shall include the following:

(A) A comprehensive description and assessment of scenarios and likely outcomes with respect to a possible use of force against Taiwan by the People's Republic of China, compiled from existing descriptions and assessments from Federal departments and agencies.

(B) An assessment of the defensive asymmetric capabilities of Taiwan, including—

(i) a description and assessment of the current defensive asymmetric capabilities of Taiwan; and

(ii) a description of the defensive asymmetric capabilities necessary for Taiwan to successfully alter scenarios and likely outcomes with respect to a possible use of force by the People's Republic of China against Taiwan, including the estimated cost of such capabilities.

(C) An assessment of options for the United States to support Taiwan's defense budgeting and procurement process in a manner that facilitates sustained investment in capabilities aligned with the asymmetric defense strategy of Taiwan, including—

(i) a review of technical advisory options for enhancing defense budgeting across military services in Taiwan;

(ii) an evaluation of any administrative, institutional, or personnel barrier, in the United States or Taiwan, to implementing the options described in clause (i);

(iii) an evaluation of the most appropriate entities within the Department of Defense to lead such options;

(iv) an evaluation of the appropriate entities within the Ministry of National Defense of Taiwan and the National Security Council of Taiwan to participate in such options; and

(v) a description of additional personnel, resources, and authorities in Taiwan or the United States that may be required to implement such options.

(D) An assessment of the merits, including any potential risks or costs, of other policy options to support the enhancement of the defensive asymmetric capabilities of Taiwan identified under subparagraph (B)(ii), including—

(i) assisting Taiwan in the domestic production of such capabilities, including through the transfer of intellectual property or co-development or co-production arrangements; and

(ii) establishing a permanent fund to support regular investment by Taiwan in such capabilities.

(E) With respect to each element required by subparagraphs (A) through (D), a description of any lack of consensus and alternative views and analyses.

(d) STRATEGY FOR ENGAGEMENT WITH TAIWAN TO ENHANCE DEFENSIVE ASYMMETRIC CAPABILITIES.—Not later than 60 days after the date on which the report required under subsection (c) is submitted, the Secretary of Defense, in coordination with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees a report detailing a strategy for engagement with Taiwan to enhance the defensive asymmetric capabilities of Taiwan, including—

(1) diplomatic and military engagement with Taiwan to support the enhancement of the defensive asymmetric capabilities identified under subsection (c)(2)(B)(ii); and

(2) support for the successful deployment of such capabilities by Taiwan, including through necessary training.

(e) INCREASED SALES OF DEFENSIVE ASYMMETRIC CAPABILITIES TO TAIWAN.—Not later than 60 days after the date on which the report required under subsection (d) is submitted, the Secretary of State shall—

(1) initiate negotiations with Taiwan with the goal of significantly increasing the sale to Taiwan of the defensive asymmetric capabilities identified under subsection (c)(2)(B)(ii); and

(2) every 180 days after the initiation of such negotiations, brief the appropriate congressional committees on the status of such negotiations.

(f) FORM OF REPORTS.—The reports required under this section shall be submitted in classified form but may include an unclassified annex.
